STUDENT

Sandy,

To a best friend who I hardly ever see. We used to have classes together but not anymore. (Cause you take all those hard classes)! Sandy, you are the sweetest person I know. I used to have some pretty dumb problems and you would always listen to me. Never forget all of our fun times together, I know I won't. Remember that p.s. party you had at your house in the disassembly? What a blast! Well Sandy, have fun in Europe and watch out for them male Europeans! Best of luck to you in your Nursing career. Be good and God bless ya

The crowning of Queen Sue Lashuay highlighted this year's homecoming game as the Lancers were defeated 32 to 0 by Chesaning. Sue's court consisted of senior Denise McIntosh, junior Cindy Batdorf, sophomore Debbie Dryer, and freshman Pam Twining. Escorts were Don Terwillegar, Mike Olausson, Brent Eastman, Karl Bontrager, and Wes Batdorf.

Campaign Assembly

A campaign assembly and mock presidential election were staged by members of Mr. Wagner's Government classes during the height of the election year. Representing Richard Nixon was Ken Lashuay, while Paul Sasse (left) sided with George McGovern. Speeches were delivered, posters and signs were made, and newsmen, Dan Myers and Rick Tepatti recorded the event.

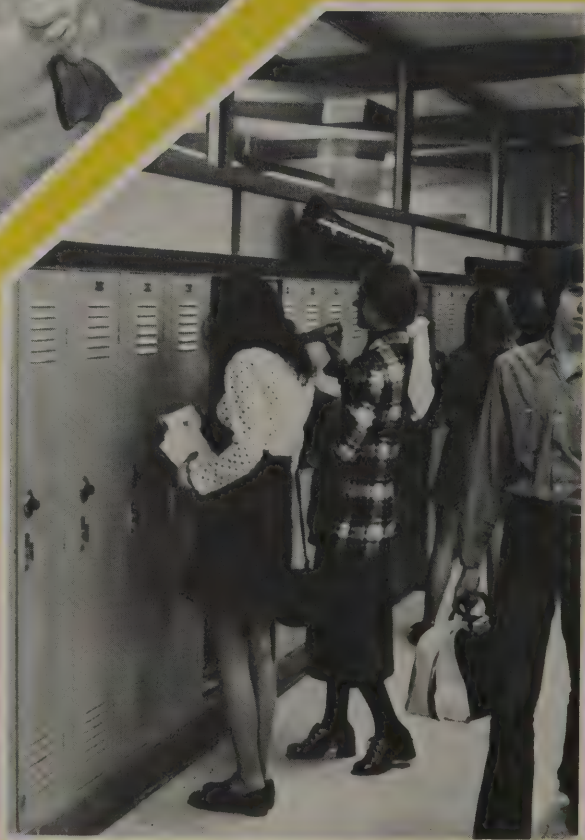

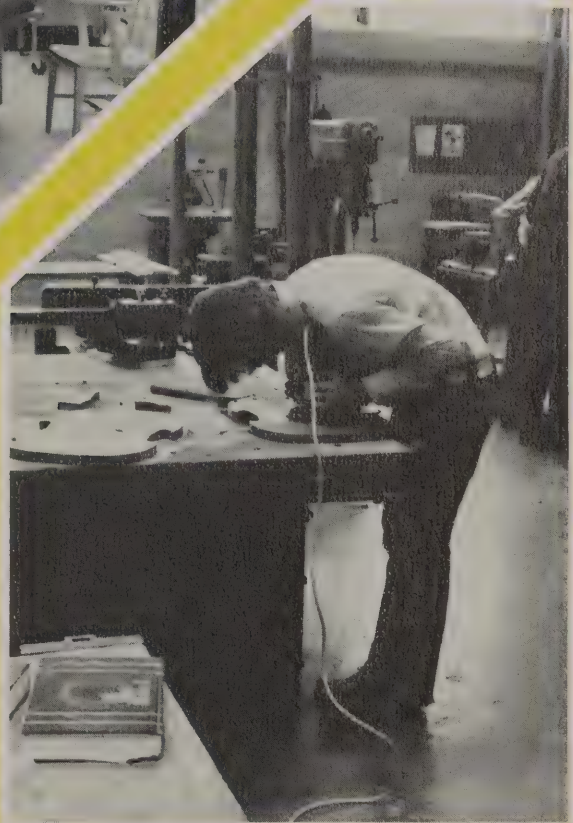

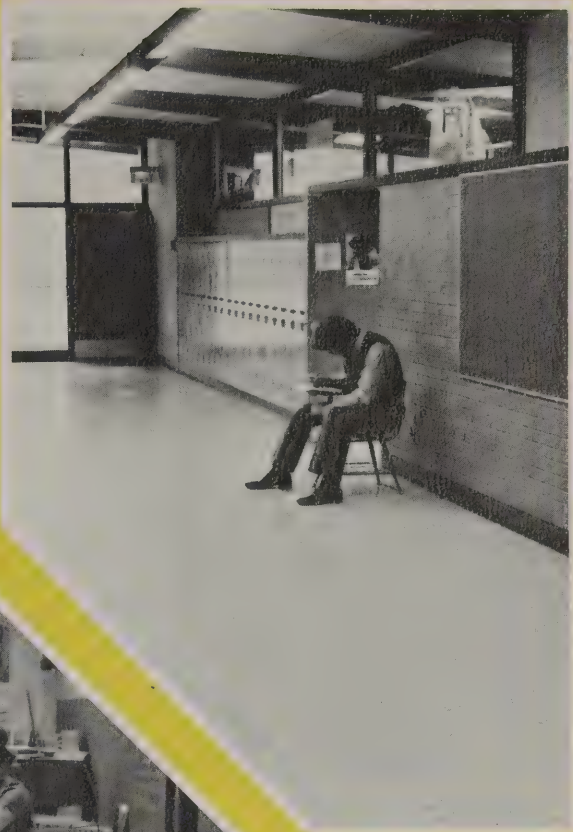

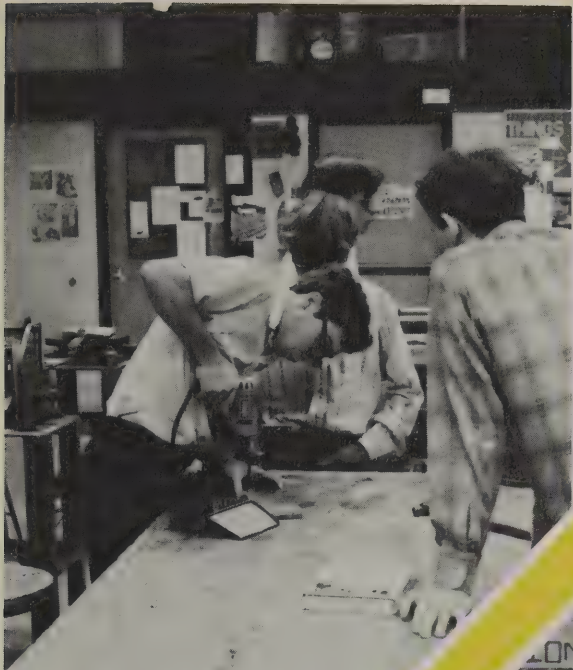

B.C. Entertainment

The 1972-73 school year was filled with assemblies during the school day and dances at night. The assemblies included everything from a magician (above, left), to sophomore skits (left and below). At the Swamp Stomp (above), many students learned the art of square dancing.

Master of Ceremonies, Rick Tepatti, keeping the audience entertained between skits.

Del Monte (Paul Sasse) sets up a steal with Trickee Dickee (Dave Maschino) in the Senior Class skit, "Let's Fake a Steal."

The Co-op Club skit was a satire about certain school policies and faculty members. Here Pistol Pete (Pat Secrist) describes the joys of fishing to Percy Berfel (Ann Blumer).

Co-Op Club wins with "The Longest Day"

Percy Berfel is harassed by members of Miss Stacked's typing class.

This year's HiLites program, under the direction of the National Honor Society, was quite successful. Capturing the first prize of $25 for the best skit was the Co-op Club with their skit, "The Longest Day." The Junior Class took second place with "Divorce Game", while the 3rd place winner was the Freshman class with "The Commercial Controversy."

Winning 1st place in the category of Individuals was Pat Heath with a vocal selection entitled "Medley of Love."

Injuries and inexperience kept the Lancer Harriers from copping the conference championship. With just three seniors on the squad, the Lancers finished 4-4. Running against such schools as Class 'A' Midland and Bridgeport and Class 'C' powerhouse Sheperd, the Lancers faced one of the toughest schedules in Lancer history. Paul Sasse was voted most valuable runner by his teammates. Sasse, along with sophomore Tom Leddy, led the Harriers in a majority of the races. They also led in the conference meet getting first and second, respectively.

Varsity 6-13 overall

The varsity finished up with a 6-13 record. Although the record didn't show it, the team seemed to improve and gain needed confidence. The Lancers finished 5th in the conference and came up short in a close district game against Chesaning.

The Lancers never lacked hustle or the spirit generated by all the student body. And, as Kurt Twining said, "We really appreciated that."

J. Varsity Basketball gains experience

The J. V. Basketball team finished with only a 3-15 record but many ball-players gained experience and game confidence. B. C. H. S. is looking forward to them next year on the varsity. They are: Tim Phelps, Kevin DeMott, Steve Crall, T. Brubaker, Greg Copus, Tom Leddy, Brian Bugbee, Clark Most, Karl Bontranger, Rick Hall, Mark Morey, Chuck Dolley, Phil Wade, Jim Hackett, Bob Kruger, and Craig Mizer.

In Memoriam

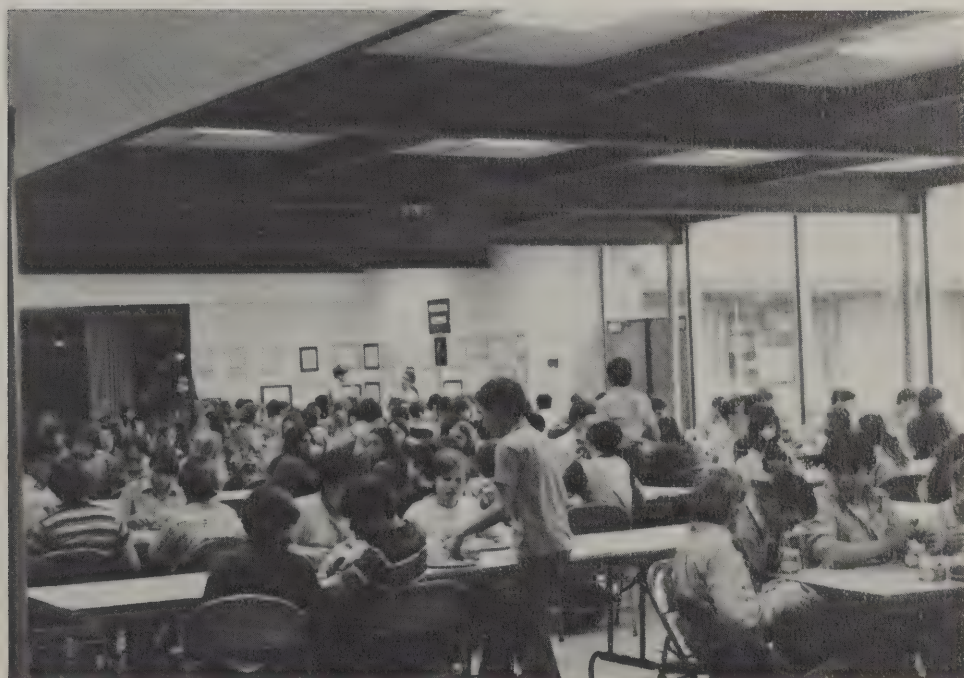

Miss Wanda May Sian, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sian, 1329 S. Homer Rd., was killed in a car accident just two days after school ended in the summer of 1972.

Wanda was going into her senior year at Bullock Creek High School where her special talent was put to work in the Art Department.

It is in her memory that the Lancer staff dedicates this space, hoping that she will always be remembered by all.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

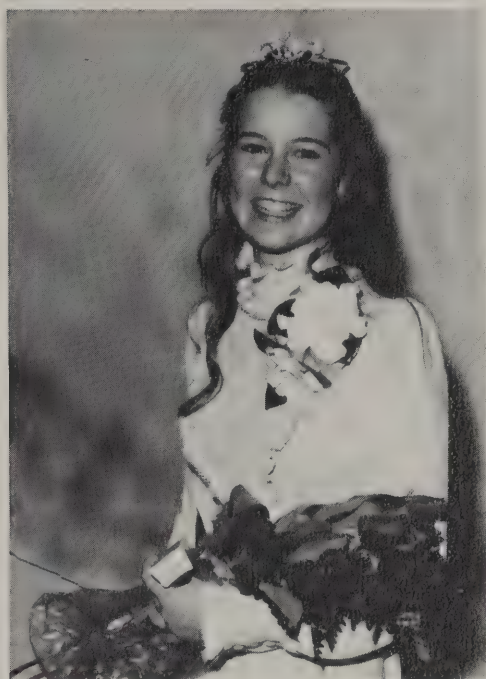

"Strawberry Fields

The Junior Class selected "Strawberry Fields Forever" as the theme for the annual Junior-Senior Prom, held May 12 at the B.C. Middle School gymnasium. Music was provided from 8-12 by Mission, a group from Lansing. During the evening, Miss Mary Juengel was crowned Prom Queen by Gregory Climie, B.C.H.S. principal.

The 1973 Prom Queen and her court: Joan English, Mary Juengel, Marla Hagle, Tina Beach.

Members of the Breakfast Optimist Club served food all night.

All-Night Graduation Party

Drawings for prizes donated by area merchants were held during the breaks between band sets.

The all-night graduation party was held at the Midland Community Center from 11 p.m. to 5 a.m. A variety of activities were available to the graduates and their guests. Salmagundi, a band from Ann Arbor, played from midnight until 4 a.m. Various parents of graduates as well as faculty members served as chaperons throughout the night.

Honor students

Valedictorian

Vickie Hagley was named valedictorian of the class of 1973 with a 3.97 grade point average. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hagley. Vickie has been very active in school activities at B.C. including National Honor Society, GAA, bowling intramurals, Latin Club, Co-op Club, Debate, Forensics, skiing, Science Quiz, Home Ec Club and Pep Club. As a junior she was presented the chemistry award and attended the High School Honors Science Program at MSU. As a senior she was named a National Merit Finalist. Vickie was employed as a co-op at the Dow Corning Corporation.

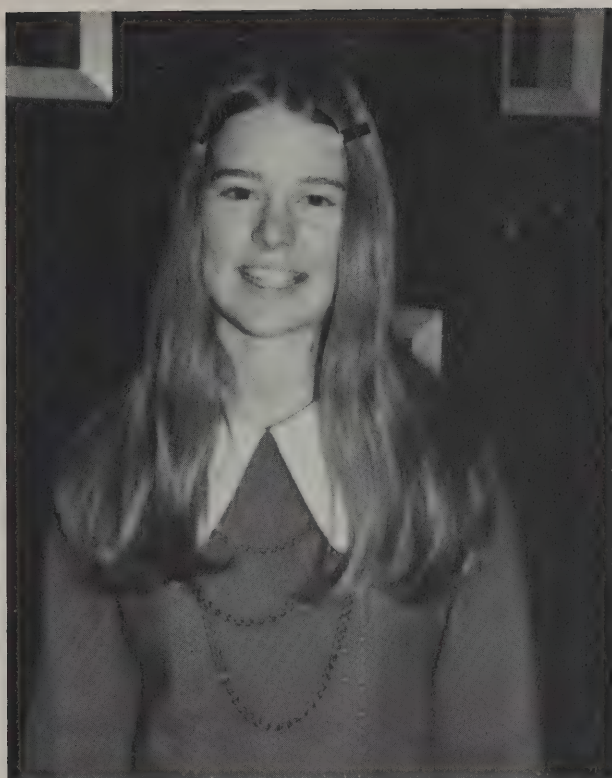

Salutatorian

Ann Blumer was named salutatorian with a grade point average of 3.80. Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Blumer. She, too, has been involved in many student activities during her high school years. Included in these activities are National Honor Society, Co-op Club, Latin Club, Student Council, GAA, and yearbook staff. She was a class officer for two years. Ann attended the High School Honors Science Program at MSU as a junior and received the senior math award as a senior. She was a co-op in a research lab at Dow Corning.

Other seniors in the upper ten per cent of the graduating class were Norine Blubaugh, Ken Lashuay, Mary Juengel, Ronda Haggitt, Wendy Nelson, Donna Herringshaw, Jeffrey Holmsen, Duane Otey, Denise McIntosh, Pat Sechrist, and Kurt Twining.

DAR Good Citizen

Mary Juengel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Juengel, was named the D.A.R. Good Citizen this year. Selection for this award is based upon leadership, service, dependability, and patriotism.

Throughout her high school years, Mary was active in band, Pep Club, bowling intramurals, G.A.A., Ski Club, and National Honor Society. She also graduated in the top 10% of her class.

Midland Junior Miss

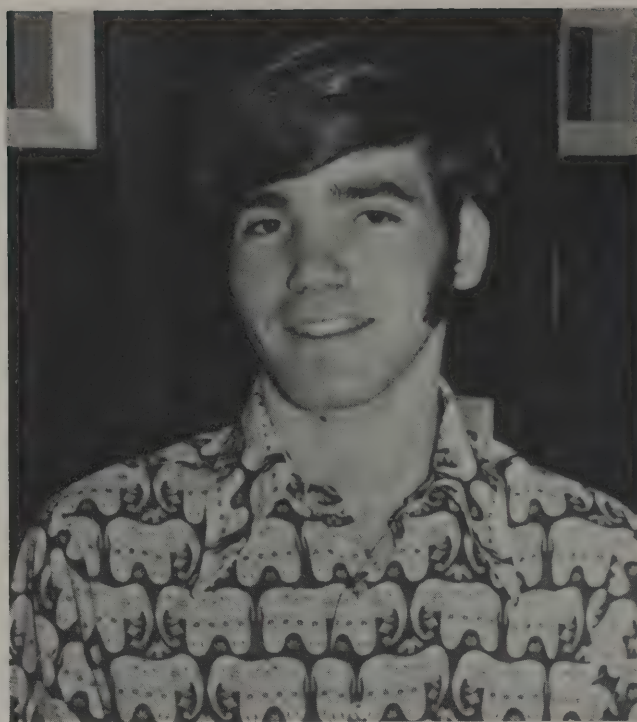

Rhonda Kobel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kobel, was selected as the Midland Junior Miss this year. Rhonda then advanced to the regional Jr. Miss competition at Fenton and to the state competition at Pontiac. Rhonda's talent for the competition included a film of herself and her horse.

Rhonda has been active in bowling intramurals, G.A.A., Pep Club, and cheerleading. She was also a class officer as a junior.

Presidential Classroom

Ken Lashuay was selected to attend the Presidential Classroom for Young Americans in Washington D.C. Selection for this award is based on scholarship, involvement in school activities, co-operation, self-discipline, and sincerity. The trip is sponsored by N. H. S.

Some of the highlights of Ken's trip were visiting the Fairfax Highwat Research Station, the Pentagon, and the Ford Theater. He also met Senator and Mrs. Geo. McGovern, Rep. Bella Abzug, and Sen. Ted Kennedy.

John Phillip Sousa Award

The John Phillip Sousa Award goes to the top senior musician in the varsity band. This year this award went to Ronda Haggit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Haggit.

Ronda was 1st chair clarinetist and played in solo-ensemble competition at the state level for 4 years.

As a senior, Ronda was the class secretary, a member of National Honor Society, and a co-op at Dow.

Baccalaureate

Music for the baccalaureate program, held June 3, 1973, was provided by members of the senior class. The musical portion of the program included both instrumental and vocal selections. Rev. Lloyd R. Miller of the Midland Mennonite Church was the speaker for the evening.

Graduation

Commencement exercises for the Class of 1973 were held in the high school gymnasium June 7, 1973. This year's class established a new tradition by having the valedictorian, Vickie Hagley, and the salutatorian, Ann Blumer, speak to their fellow classmates and guests.

Dr. Samuel Marble, president of Saginaw Valley College, was the commencement speaker. Following Dr. Marble's address, Dr. Theodore Holmsen, president of Board of Education, presented the diplomas to the 1973 graduates.

ADVERTISING

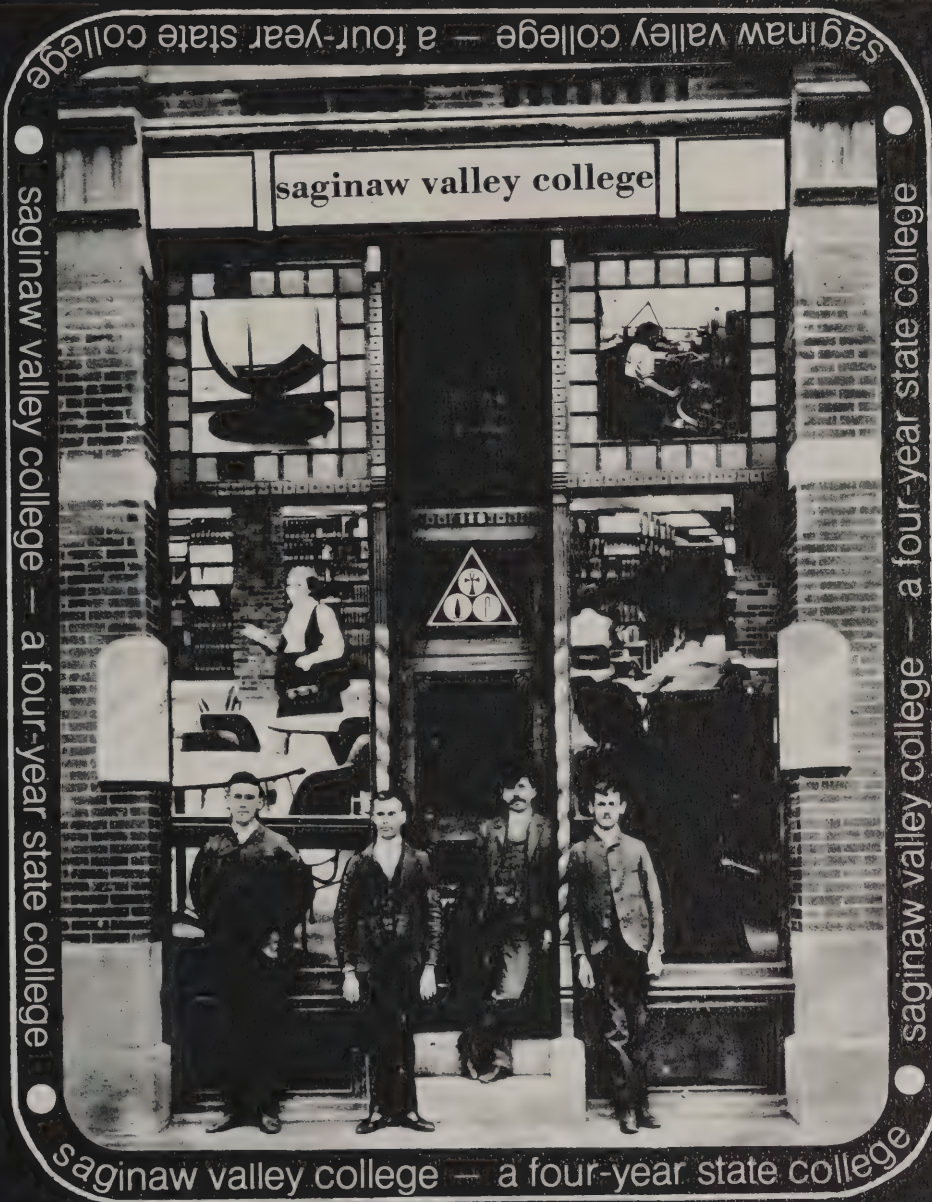

Dar DeBolt works in Midland Plant Project Engineering Department.

New problems require new approaches, particularly the increasingly tough problems that come with our increasingly technological civilization. The advocacy of new approaches has always been associated with youth, and with good reason. Dow Corning is a youthful company, both in years and outlook. We have based our success on creating molecules never found in nature, and tailoring them to meet mankind's needs. Our Co-Op program for area high school and college students is one way you might join the fun.
